1. Reference is made to 39-CWU regarding the above subject.
2. In reply to paragraph 2 of the referenced dispatch, we have arranged, through proper cover arrangements, to have a competent German translator and writer prepare a summary of the trial transcript. This summary, which will contain those parts of the transcript which in our opinion are pertinent to our purposes, will be used both as general background material and as the basis for any pamphlet or publication which we subsequently may produce on this particular subject. We will provide you with a copy of the summary as soon as it is available and keep you advised of our plans for exploiting the trial testimony.
3. In reply to paragraph 3 of the referenced dispatch, the [ ] Station has informed us that a copy of the transcript has been forwarded to the home office, presumably to [ ]'s department. We assume, therefore, that you will be able to obtain this copy and that it will not be necessary for us to have our copy photostated in the field, as suggested by you.

This document is not to be distributed outside the [ ] organization. It is to be reviewed and submitted to individual [ ] for review.
